USE THIS CODE TO SUBMIT YOUR REPORTS AND ACCESS INFORMATION

Your access code provides you with access to online services that are recommended as your main source of information while you receive Employment Insurance (EI) benefits. Do not share your code with anyone and always store it in a safe place. It is used to identify you and ensures that your privacy is protected.

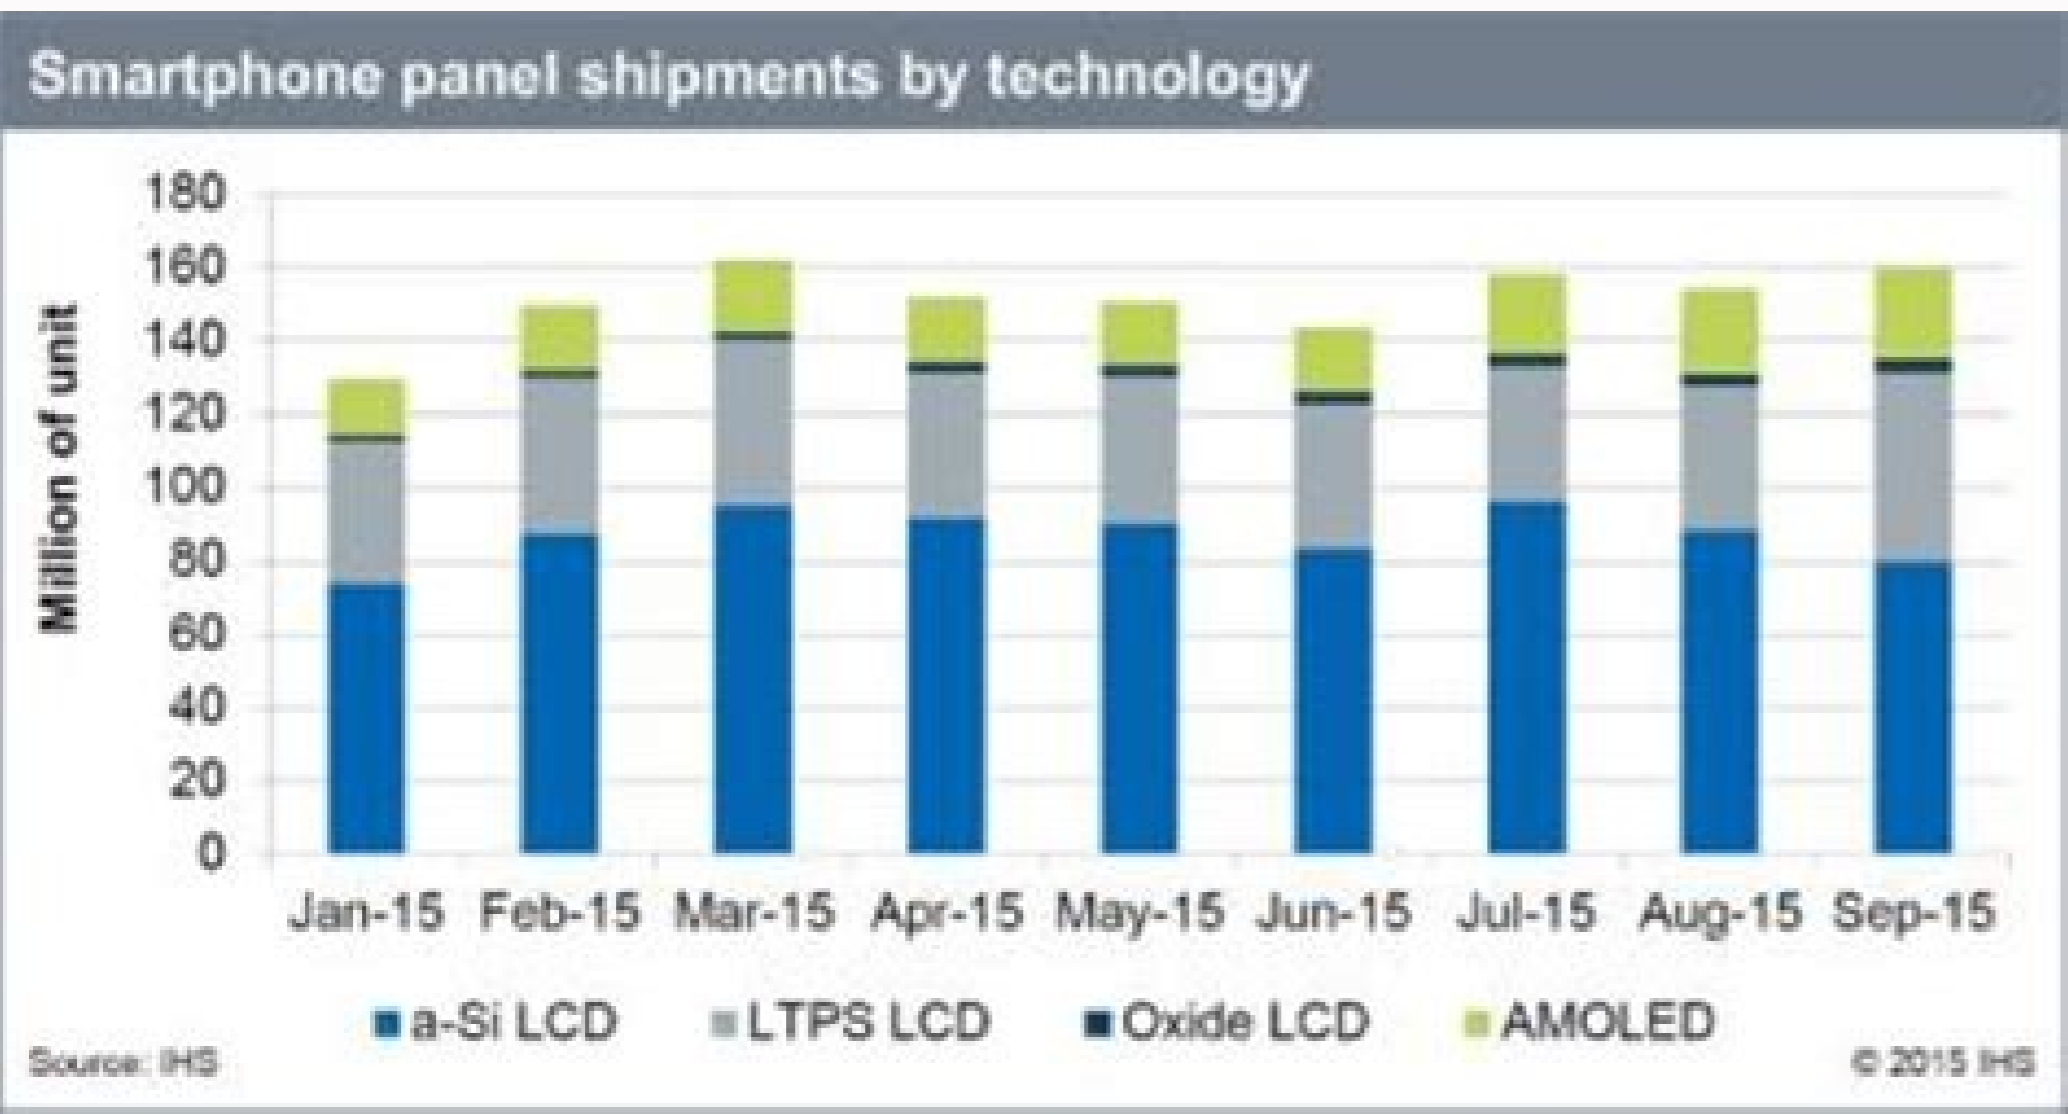

1: You must submit your bi-weekly reports using your access code

You can find out when you must submit your bi-weekly reports using the Internet Reporting Service at www.canada.ca/EI-Internet-reporting or the Telephone Reporting Service at 1 800 531-7555. You can also sign-in to My Service Canada Account to find out when you must submit your reports. If you have applied or you are receiving EI regular, sickness or fishing benefits you must submit bi-weekly reports.

If you are receiving work-sharing, apprentice, maternity, parental, compassionate care or benefits for parents of critically ill children you may have chosen the option that exempts you from submitting bi-weekly reports. If so, you also agreed to inform Service Canada immediately if you worked, received money or there are other circumstances that could affect the amount of benefits you receive. If you have not chosen the option to be exempted from submitting bi-weekly reports for these types of benefits, you must submit bi-weekly reports.
