This case was an open case and closed as the killer had been identified many years ago. nothing has yet been done to imprison him and bring justice to the members of the family of Jessica. the people of my city have tried to do something about this case. They knew very well that "Retarded Justice is denied justice." so they thought to remind the country of this casenot yet published. It was well known that manyHe had passed since the murder and the murderers were roaming without Scottish. A group of about twenty people, including Jessica Nal family members started a silent trip. They jogged towards India's door with illuminated candles. As they marched towards it many people began to join them. People used their mobile phone to send SMS to others who knew. In a few hours the crowd of people grew up in hundreds. They marched in total silence. Some people were singing inspirational songs. Soon even the Doordarshan was intimate. Other news channels such as Aaj Tak, Zee News and NDTV also appeared on the scene in no time. Soon journalists covered the entire accident. Peace-marchieri held candles on the gate very calmly and composed. A photograph of Jessica was held in the middle of hundreds of these heated candles. The soft golden yellow light of these candles fell on the face of the dead girl and lit them with a heavenly beauty. T.V channels They then started interviewing some of the family members. They spoke in soft tones, but they were stopped at their justice request. The pamphlets were distributed the à €
