Carrie was an artist all my life. After several years of freelance illustration work, computer graphic design, painting of signs and wall projects, Carrie started its full-time decorative painting activity in 1996 specializing in custom murals hand-painted for ceilings, walls and external surfaces . Since then you have worked with customers from the east coast to the western coast including hotels, casino, restaurants, spas and hundreds of residential projects. Carrie's work has been described in numerous regional journals. Carrie is also specialized in decorative cement finishes for false ceilings, walls, back splashes and floors. Jim l was a painter of art most of him, specializing in watercolors. The paintings of him were present in national exhibitions and galleries during his career. Jim's artistic career crossed by working for advertising companies, as well as having its own business by creating exposure points for regional companies in GA. Jim combines its artistic capacities with its decorative concrete systems to create beautiful works of art on existing cement and flooring surfaces.
