Erasmus Mundus Mastera Å's Degree in Womena Å, SE Gender Studies - Gemma - It is a post-graduate program that consists of two years of study (120 ECTS) in two centers chosen in seven prestigious European universities participating At the Consortium. One will be your University home, where you start and complete the first year of study, and the second will be your university mobility, where the mandatory mobility period is completed in the third half (second year of study). The minimum number of credits to be acquired during the semester of mobility is 30 ECTS. You also have the opportunity to spend the time dedicated to writing the thesis (fourth semester) at the mobility university. When will the next invitation to submit open candidates? The invitation to submit questions for the Erasmus Mundus scholarship for the edition 13 Å ° (2019-2021) is closed. A second invitation to present candidates for self-financed students will open in April. What is the Erasmus Mundus scholarship and what covers? Erasmus Mundus scholarships are offered as part of world cooperation and mobilization program in the field of erasmus + higher education, funded and managed by the European Commission. Scholarships offered in gem belong to Action 1 Erasmus + wire (Erasmus Mundus Joint Master degrees - EMJMD), and are intended to cover part of the expenses incurred students during their study period. Each scholarship is closely linked to a location in the program and can be offered only for the duration of the gem, which is two years. Scholarships are assigned by the European Commission to the candidates chosen by the Gemma selection committee based on the curricula, academic merit, motivation, advice, linguistic skills, etc. A person can only get a scholarship Erasmus Mundus during their lifetime . Students who have been a scholarship scholarships Erasmus Mundus, can not apply for Erasmus Mundus. Students, who benefited from the Erasmus LLP mobility bag before, can still apply for an Erasmus Mundus scholarship, provided that it is not within the same study program. The fees covers studio scholarships (in both universities), health insurance and part of the residence expenses during the two years of study in gem (including the preparation and presentation / discussion of the final thesis in the last six months). What requirements do I need to make in order to apply for the Erasmus + scholarship for partner countries (Ex Category A)? Partner Country bags can be assigned to students of the partner countries selected by the Gemma Consortium that comes from a country other than a country of the program and that they are not resident or have carried out their main activity (studies, training or work) in a country program for more than a total of 12 months over the last five years. See note 97 on page 116 of the new Erasmus + Guide program available here. It is also possible to find the current definitions of partner countries on pages 21-23 of the new Erasmus + program guide available here. Applicants scholarships must have already obtained a higher education title and did not benefiting from an Erasmus Mundus scholarship previously. How much are the cost university fees (if I participate as a self-financed student)? If you decide to participate Gemma without the bag Studio Erasmus Mundus, university fees are currently 2,100 Åf å ç Å Å Å ç for European students and 5,500 Åf å ç Å Å Å å¹ for third-country students, per academic year. Taxes can be paid in two installments, but again by 31 December of each academic academic The real participation costs for one academic year amounts to 4500 Å ç - Å ç - Å¹Å¹ for students of the program countries and 9000 Å ç - Å¹Å¹ for partner country students. However, the Consortium Gemma offers a waiver fee for self-financed students of 2400 Å ç å ç Å Å Å¹ and 3500 Å ç å ç Å Å Å¹ respectively. Therefore, the final registration fees for self-financed students are the result of the difference between the actual costs for participation and contribution of the consortium. Notice: if you had not received external funding from sources gem (eg scholarship from the Spanish Ministry or any other), you'll have to pay the difference between the amount received and the above costs of participation. For more information, visit the "Scholarships> Other scholarships" you must have a previous academic degree related to women's studies and gender to be eligible to Gemma? Gemma is an interdisciplinary program, and therefore the previous education in women's and gender studies is not a necessary condition for participation. The selection committee is composed of representatives of all participating universities Gemma, specialists in various fields of study. The Committee requests to any discipline and assessment includes various merits such as academic records, motivation, curriculum, professional past and future plans, and so on. This has said, however, its previous experience in the field of women's studies and gender will be considered by the Committee to be an add-on, which increases the final score of the candidate evaluation. I have to provide proof of knowledge of all the consortium languages (English, Spanish, Italian)? The language proficiency requirements will vary depending on the route you want complete mobility. In the selection process you are encouraged to indicate your preference for 2 to 7 Gemma university where you want to study: a university will be your home (where you will spend the first year of your study Å °) and the other will be your University of mobility (Where to spend the 2 Å ° year). The University of Gemma partners differ in language education and that's why you need to consider the linguistic criteria when applying. The languages of instruction used in universities that form the consortium are Gemma: Å¹Å Å ç Å Å, Å=Å¹Å Å Å Å Å, Ceu, York and Utrecht- English. Granada Å Å ç Å ç å - "in the first year Spanish and English and Spanish in the second year (mobility) Oviedo - Spanish and English in the first year in the second year (mobility) Bologna Å ç - Å ç - Å Italian and English; what are the requirements regarding the language certificates? it's mandatory to provide language certificates (or other official documents proving your linguistic ability) and for the house that for the university language education mobility. If both universities teach in English, you have only the English certificate (or any official document proving your proficiency in English), the language certificates must be sent along with all other documents at the time of application submission. If you want to send certificates with international recognition, such as IELTS, TOEFL ®, etc., it's responsibility to make sure that you can have the results ready before the deadline for applications. The selection committee has established Recommended scores for language certificates: IELTS: 6.5, * TOEFL (Internet-based): 93; Cambridge Certificates: CAE: Grade B, CPE: degree C. They will also be considered applications with lower scores, provided that the candidate can demonstrate their mastery of the language in question. If you do not have a language certificate recognized the necessary language, you can provide a transcript of records from a period of study completed in this language, or some other As long as it is å ç
