Limericks

1. Read limericks 1 to 6. What's the rhyme scheme and the meter of a typical limerick?
2. How is the content of a limerick typically structured?
3. What's funny about Limericks 6 to 8?

1. There was a Young Person of Smyrna
Whose grandmother threatened to burn her,
But she seized on the cat,
And said, "Granny, burn that!
You incongruous old woman of Smyrna!"

2. There was a young fellow of Wheeling
Endowed with such delicate feeling,
When he read on the door,
"Don't spit on the floor"
He jumped up and spat on the ceiling!

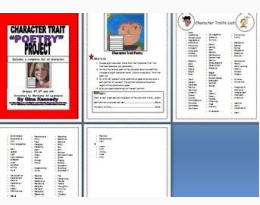

3. A carner exceedingly carry
One morning remarked to his granny:
"A carner can can
Any thing that he can
But a carner can't can a can, can he?"

4. There was a young lady of station
'I love man' was her sole exclamation
But when men cried, "You flatter"
She replied, "Oh! no matter
Life of Man is the true explanation!"

5. There was a young lady whose chin
Resembled the point of a pin,
So she had it made sharp
And purchased a harp,
And played several times with her chin.

6. There once was a man from Nantucket
Who kept all his cash in a bucket.
Then his daughter named Nan
Ran away with a man
As for the bucket, Nantucket.

So he followed them to Pawtucket...
The man and the girl and the bucket.
He said to the man,
"You are welcome to Nan,
But as for the bucket, Pawtucket."

It was twelve by the village clock,
When he crossed the bridge over Meadford town,
He heard the swishing of the eels,
And the barrow of the farmer's cow,
And felt the damp of the river breeze,
That rose when the sun goes down.

It was one by the village clock,
When he sat on the bridge,
He saw the golden watercock,
And the morning he saw windows, hails and bars,
Gave at him with a general glare,
As if they already stood ajar,
At the bloody work they would look upon.

It was two by the village clock,
When he came to the bridge in Coventry town,
He heard the blabbing of the fish,
And the twitter of birds among the trees,
And felt the breath of the morning breeze,
Blowing over the meadow lawns,
And one year said and adieu to his bed,
Who at the bridge would be first to fall,
Who that day would be first to die,
Pierced by a British musket ball.

You know the road to the bog you have read,
How the British regulars fired and fled,
How the farmer gave them half the bull,
From behind each tree and haystack wall,
Chasing the rebels down the lane,
Then crossing the fields to escape again,
Under the trees at the turn of the road,
And only passing to fire and lead.

It was through the middle of Paul Street
And on through the night was his cry of alarm,
To every household voice and horn,
A cry of "betwixt and out of two,
A voice in the darkness a knock at the door,
And a word that shall echo forevermore!"
For home on the night road of the man,
Through all our history to the last,
In the hour of darkness and need and need,
The humming of best beats of that street,
And the midnight message of Paul Street.
